LEGAL EXPERIENCE

Montgomery Purdue PLLC

Seattle, Washington
Attorney since 2025

PRACTICE AREAS

Corporate and Health Law

Hyung Jang is an associate attorney at Montgomery Purdue PLLC. His practice focuses on corporate and transactional law, with a developing emphasis on health law and the representation of healthcare entities. Hyung assists clients with a wide range of business matters, including entity formation and governance, contract negotiation and drafting, mergers and acquisitions, and compliance with state and federal healthcare regulations.

Hyung is particularly interested in guiding physicians, medical groups, and other healthcare professionals through the legal and regulatory complexities of operating and expanding their practices. His work includes advising on professional entity structures, management service organization (MSO) arrangements, and relationships between healthcare providers and investors.

Hyung has gained experience in business and regulatory compliance matters, which informs his practical approach to helping clients achieve their strategic and operational goals while maintaining compliance with healthcare laws such as the Stark Law, Anti-Kickback Statute, and HIPAA.
